

Woden ISD Junior High School Survey Results

School Safety and Discipline

Successes:

Most of the students at Woden ISD Junior High feel safe and secure, including in the hallways and bathrooms. They also feel safe and secure knowing that cameras are located throughout the campus and interior/exterior doors are secured during school hours. Students agreed that teachers and administrators do a good job of supervising after-school activities. School staff members consistently enforce school rules and the Code of Student Conduct is consistent and fairly enforced.

Strategic Needs:

Many students agreed that student bullying and threatening one another is a problem. Students teasing and picking on each other is common. Some students do not behave in an orderly manner. Some students have seen other students carrying weapons. Several students agreed they are often a victim of violence in their school. Some students have been sexually harassed while at school.

School Environment:

Successes:

Most students feel that Woden ISD Junior High is kept clean. School grounds are kept neat and free of trash.

Strategic Needs:

Some students agreed they use drugs. Some students have been approached by other students to use drugs.

School Relationships and Participation:

Successes:

Most students like attending Woden ISD Junior High. Students feel that they have a good relationship with their teachers and their teachers show them respect. Students agreed they are involved in making decisions and are involved in different school activities.

Strategic Needs:

Most students do not feel comfortable talking with teachers about their problems. Some students have been mean to others because of race or ethnicity.

Academic Environment

Successes:

Most students agreed that there are high standards for academic performance.